FACTS AND

OBSERVATIONS.

Two Days Spent In Bath County. Farmers Very Busy— Our Pikes.

On Monday morning of last week, J. T. Coons, of Spencer, on route to Bethel, invited us to accompany him and we accepted.

At Judy we heard of the death of Miss Sallie, daughter of W. B. Flanders, who died on Sunday, September 9. She was about 22 years old and had been in feeble health for a long time. Her death brought great sorrow especially to the aged father. The burial was at Bunker Hill on Monday afternoon. A notice which was written from Judy failed to reach our office for last Tuesday's issue.

FARMERS.

The farmers are very busy caring for the tobacco crop; laborers are scarce and command wages ranging from $1 to 1.50. The crop is generally regarded as heavy, but not first-class in grade. The tobacco worm, like the farmer, is getting in his work. Corn cutting will begin as soon as the rush is over.

A WORD OF ADMONITION

We would give to the Fiscal County concerning the condition of the pikes. They are rough now, in places, and generally show the effects of much wear. Winter with washing rains will combine with the heavily loaded, narrow-tire wagon and the pride of our country will be sadly defective. Our experience in pike building is limited, but this is one of our onerous

VATIONS. Do not wait until the metal is cut through.

If rag weed causes hay fever, we are surprised that all the country folk including editors and others passing through are not sneezing.

BETHEL.

We reached Bethel in time for dinner. During our stay we were the guests of Willie Pieratt and wife, at whose marriage last year the writer was a factor.

Mr. Pieratt is a brother-in-law of J. T. Coons, both having married daughters of S. A. Duff at Spencer, Ky; they are likewise partners in the mercantile business. On Tuesday morning at 4:20 they left for Cincinnati, O. to make purchases for their store.

We took in a few points concerning the town, also considerable luscious watermelon, juicy, sweet and ice cold. We were informed that the population of the town was 120. This appeared to us a low figure, but as we were not a census enumerator we accepted this report.

MERCHANTS.

J. M. Gossett has been in business for 25 years and says he does a strictly cash business. If he cannot sell his groceries he can eat them (that's what he said).

J. R. Peters, son of W. R. Peters, Sr., has been in the business since January, having been a farmer. He is unmarried we presume, for we heard him speak of a recent trip to Oil Springs and being up all night.

Coons & Pieratt, now at Bethel, are experienced merchants, and keep a large stock well cared for and are doing well. They are ably assisted by Mr. Cyrus Arrasmith.

Horton Bros. & Co., the Co. being Willie Day, are the latest candidates for public patronage. These are well known and highly respected Montgomery county men. Willie Day is in charge. Trade is good and the prospect is flattering.

J. W. Hawkins is the undertaker. We did not meet him or need his services.

W. R. Peters, Jr. is the blacksmith and wood-workman.

Robinson Bros. are the warehousemen, and are making arrangements to handle a large amount of tobacco. Their home was burned some months ago but another will soon be completed.

CHURCHES.

There are two congregations. Rev. A. P. Jones is pastor of the Methodist church and preaches on the 1st and 3rd Sundays. Rev. N. H. Brooks, a student of the College of the Bible, preaches at the Christian church on the 2nd and 4th Sundays. He has just begun preaching here. He also preaches at Sharpburg on two Sundays.

Will not a union of all who have faith in Christ be conducive to spirituality and more effective work (in small towns, large towns and cities)? If we mistake not, such a union will be scriptural, however antagonistic to man's wishes. In our efforts to live christian lives we should be willing to follow the Scripture.

SCHOOLS.

In the School district there are 121 pupils. The enrollment at beginning of 2nd week was only 55.

The principal is Miss Lucy Harper, formerly of Bourbon county, whom we met at Mr. Pieratt's. She is assisted by Miss Sallie Stone, of Bethel.

DOCTORS.

The sick are cared for by Doctors J. D. Davis, J. J. Letton, O. H. Roberts and S. M. Stone. We did not meet the latter. The health of the community is good—distressing so far so many doctors in a small town. The surrounding country is attractive, somewhat hilly and generally productive.

Very few views are seen enroute to Bethel from Mt. Sterling.

We met some of our subscribers, enlisted others and are willing to take a few more.

We are Democratic. One gentleman asked: "are you for Goebel?" We answered: "We were for Mr. Goebel while he lived and are Democratic." He replied that Goebel was obnoxious to him.

A Great Name

is a guarantee of superior worth

There are many brands of baking powders, but "Royal Baking Powder" is recognized at once as the brand of great name, the powder of highest favor and reputation. Everyone has absolute confidence in the food where Royal is used.

Pure and healthful food is a matter of vital importance to every individual.

Royal Baking Powder assures the finest and most wholesome food.

There are many imitation baking powders, made from alum, mostly sold cheap. Avoid them, as they make the food unwholesome.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 WILLIAM ST., NEW YORK.

We hope that the assassination of Mr. Goebel by political opponents is so obvious to him, but he did not say so.

We have heard that the Republican State Convention endorsed the course of Wm. S. Taylor in his struggle for Civil Liberty (by the assassination route). If this report is not correct, we would be pleased to be informed. We are constrained to believe that some Republicans can not by their votes this fall endorse the administration of Mr. Taylor, the Innocent (?) abroad—in Indiana.

Think on these things. A night of refreshing sleep brought on to an early breakfast. We returned by Sharpburg, Guigley's Hill (taking dinner with Wm. Snathers) Sam McClure's, up one hill and down another, through tobacco fields and ragweed, via Wm. Bryan's, J. M. Steele's to Judy, thence home. Some facts and observations are left out.

Geo. Dmaldson recently sold his farm of 73 acres on Bethel & Reynoldsville pike, 3 miles from Bethel, to Jno. Boyd for $5,000 cash, possession March 1, next. Mr. Boyd sold next day to Spencer Boyd 133 acres, including the 73 acres, for $7600.

After many intricate experiments, scientists have discovered methods for obtaining all the natural digestants. These have been combined in the preparation found in the human body and united with substances that build up the digestive organs, making a compound called Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and allows all dyspepsia to eat plenty of nourishing food while the stomach troubles are being radically cured by the medical agents it contains. It is pleasant to take and will give quick relief. For sale by F. C. Duerksen, Druggist.

The New York Democratic nomination of John B. Stanchfield for Governor. After one ballot, ex-Senator Hill, who had placed Bird S. Co. in the name before the convention, moved to make Stanchfield's nomination unanimous.

SMOOTH RASCAL

Robs The Homes Of His Benefactors.

Officers in Danville are on the lookout for a smooth individual who is victimizing the people of sympathetic natures. He travels as an invalid without means en route to healthier climates, gains admission to residences, where he is given food and shelter, and then sips with any valuables he can find on the premises. A good deal of money, considerable jewelry and a number of watches have been stolen by him. The rascal is described as about five feet ten inches in height, weighs 130 to 135 pounds, and has a hacking cough.

The law holds both maker and creator of a counterfeit equally guilty. The dealer who sells you a dangerous counterfeit of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve risks your life to make a little larger profit. You cannot trust him. DeWitt's is the only genuine and original Witch Hazel Salve, a well known cure for piles and all skin diseases. See that your dealer gives you DeWitt's Salve.

Says His Business Was Ruined.

Levi Brown, engaged in the purchase and sale of iron, tin, junk and other articles, has lost his business. He had built up a good business and was comfortable at a good profit, but that it was destroyed by Jacob Hyman maliciously and without any cause, selling his merchandise at a price not to only from him, or else that he, Jacob Hyman, would refuse to sell goods to them or buy from them. Yesterday he entered suit against Jacob Hyman for $10,000 damages.

No Relief For 20 Years.

"I had bronchitis, for twenty years," said Mrs. Minerva Smith of Danville, Ill., "and at times have been bedfast. I never got relief until I had taken Foley's Honey and Tar. It is pleasant and gives quick relief, and is a sure cure for throat and lung diseases." Take nothing else.

BRYAN

Will Speak In Kentucky Next Month.

PROMISES GOV. M'CREEARY.

Towne, Hill, Cochran, McMillin And Others.

William Jennings Bryan will be heard on the stump in Kentucky this fall. Former Gov. James B. McCreary, chairman of the Democratic State Campaign Committee, who went to Chicago to confer with Mr. Bryan and members of the National Committee, returned and gave out the information that Mr. Bryan would make several speeches in the State. No definite time has been arranged for his coming, but it will be between October 7 and 16. He will make one speech, probably the first, in Louisville, and the others will be made in various parts of the State. While the committee has not definitely determined just where the speeches will be made, it is the opinion of some that they will be made in the principle cities of the State. Mr. Bryan may make the trip on a special train with other speakers, and in that event he will likely speak from the rear of his coach at smaller towns where the train stops.

Mr. McCreary said that Mr. Bryan expressed himself as very hopeful of his election and thought his prospects were improving daily. "Mr. Bryan is in splendid health," said Mr. McCreary, "and seems to be fully equal to the great demands that are being made upon him."

Mr. McCreary's trip to Chicago was principally to see Chairman Jones, of the National Committee, regarding campaign literature, but while there he called upon Chairman McConville, of the Speakers' Bureau, and asked what national speakers would be sent to Kentucky. He was assured that in addition to Mr. Bryan, Mr. Stevenson, Congressman Bailey, Congressman Champ Clark, Hon. Charles A. Towne, Gov. Benton McMillin, Congressman DeArmond, ex-Senator Hill and Hon. Bourke Cochran would be sent. None, with the possible exception of Gov. McMillin, will come until next month. No definite dates were arranged.

Mr. McCreary also requested that either Bourke Cochran or Carl Schurz be sent to Louisville to assist in opening the local campaign next week. Chairman McConville informed him that Mr. Cochran had not been assigned to any dates yet and he could make no promise about Mr. Schurz, but he agreed to furnish local Democrats with a speaker.

Mr. McCreary was well pleased with his visit to Chicago and his interview with Chairman Jones was entirely satisfactory regarding the national literature to be distributed in Kentucky.

A gentleman recently cured of dyspepsia gave the following appropriate rendering of Burns' famous blessing:

"Some have meat and cannot eat, and some have none that want it; but we have meat and we can eat it and D. dyspepsia Cure be thanked." The preparation will digest what you eat. It instantly relieves and radically cures indigestion and all stomach disorders.

For Sale by F. C. Duerksen, Druggist.

For some time there has been a controversy over the Chairmanship of the Republican Committee of Clark county. John D. Reese and E. L. Clark both claiming to be the rightful Chairmen. The matter was finally submitted to Hon. John E. Buchanan, District Chairman, who after a consideration decided that it was best for the party to select some one outside of the contending factions. He therefore removed both Reese and Clark and appointed J. R. Buchwalter to the place.

REPUBLICAN METHOD.

The assault on Hon. John S. Khea, near Morganstown, is a recurrence of the Frankfort methods headed by Taylor, Finley, Powers and others leading to the most diabolical and shameful murder that has stained historical pages. We do not charge all Republicans to be in sympathy with such methods, but we declare that all honorable, just, liberty loving men who will pause long enough to consider their real attitude would refuse to longer stand identified with a party which would endorse the methods of W. S. Taylor and associates in Kentucky in 1899-1900. No crime known to humanity is more sinful, satanic and abhorrent than ambush murder, barring assault on our women, Republicans rantingly declare for sweet liberty and freedom of suffrage when they are guilty of assault and murder during the prosecution of constitutional rights, threatened assaults on the press if it be not muzzled as per demand, and freedom of speech if our people dare oppose in positive and unmistakable terms the actions of a corrupt and murderous gang. Mr. Yerkes stands committed to that gang who have brought disgrace to Kentucky, and how any clean liberty loving man can conscientiously support him is past finding out. Moral, upright men, white and black, of whatever political faith will not, can not give countenance to the crimes committed, the revolutionary methods adopted and endorsed under such a state of affairs as we have had and which has its approval of the Republican party in Kentucky, whose life and property is secure, our public men in discharge of duty, our private citizens, our sons, daughters, mothers and wives! A tidal wave, a cyclonic tornado in fury like unto the Galveston storm is coming and from the direful pall and chaotic condition will come that peace, light, freedom and justice in which an honorable people has an abiding faith. No more slaying of men in discharge of duty, threats against the press or assaults upon public men who feel it their duty to publicly condemn lawlessness.

"Lest We Forget" are the words that appear at the head of the editorial columns of several papers, over the statement that Taylor received the certificate of the Election Commissioners, and his seat was given to Mr. Goebel by the Legislature.

They do not, however, give the certificate of Mr. Kendall Democratic nominee for Congress from this district, showing that he was elect, which seat "Parson" Hopkins contested and was seated. It is up to those papers to complete their poetic and beautiful title, "Lest We Forget," by inserting a number of Republicans got together and started out in search of a Democrat who would make a wager on the result. They accidentally met Mr. W. H. Hoek, who is one of the wealthiest and most influential Democrats in Breckinridge county.

"We want to bet $100," said one of the Republicans, "that this count will give Yerkes a majority of 500 votes."
 "I'll bet $1000," said Mr. Hoek, "that Yerkes majority won't reach 300 and will not bet $100 more that Breckinridge is elected."
 "We won't bet but $1000," spoke up one of the Republicans.
 In about five minutes Mr. Hoek returned with ten crisp $100 bills. In the meantime the crowd had grown to a big proportion.

"I'll bet this $1000 and as many thousands as you gentlemen can get that Y. K. will not get a majority of 300 votes in this county," cried Mr. Hoek defiantly.
 "If we bet we will go to the Indiana side," said one of the Republicans.
 "We'll not take any advantage of our gentlemen," replied Mr. Hoek, smiling. "How many of you are in on the wager?"
 Four or five came the response.
 "The fine for betting in the State is $100," said Mr. Hoek. "I will write my check for this amount and will give it to any man here, so if you are arrested you will not have to pay your fines out of your own pockets."
 "You meet us in Indiana tomorrow morning," spoke up one of the Republicans, "and we'll put up the money."
 "I will meet you there," replied Mr. Hoek, "providing you deposit a forfeit of $50 now." Mr. Hoek then handed a $50 bill to a man standing near him.
 "No, we won't do that," answered the Republicans in a chorus.
 "It's strange you Republicans want to go to Indiana to do everything," said Mr. Hoek, while the Democrats in the crowd laughed.

The Republicans failed to deposit their money.

MASS CONVENTION.

The democrats of Montgomery County are hereby notified that a Mass Convention will be held at the Court house in Mt. Sterling, Ky., on Monday, the 24th, day of Sept., 1900, at 2 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the District Convention to be held at Winchester, Ky., on Saturday, the 29th, day of Sept., 1900, to nominate a Democratic candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals. This Sept. 15th 1900.

H. R. PREWITT,

Chairman, Dem. Executive Com. for Montgomery County, Kentucky.

Hon. James D. Black.

Hon. James D. Black, of Barbourville, was here Saturday afternoon to talk our people, Democrats and Republicans alike. He was earnest in the interest of the great common people. He reasoned well and no man can be found who would doubt his sincerity. Like all true Kentuckians he was sorry of the state of affairs here and placed the causes where they belong—with the Republican party. He showed that trusts were in the interest of the capitalists to the injury of the common people; that imperialistic supremacy would de-throne the will of the people; that our free government would become the home of slaves, and that revolution would follow. If we would be free and contented we must stand by the principles of the Democratic party.

Judge Black, defeated for the Democratic nomination for Governor, shows his faith in party by laboring for the success of his opponent. The country of Montgomery ever stands ready to reward Judge Black for his true worth, his devotion to party.

New York Contribution.

New York's subscriptions for the relief of Galveston amount to $134,394, besides a ship load of supplies and two special train loads of food, medicine and clothing.

Republicans Bluffers Bluffed.

That the Democrats are afraid of cutting down the Republicans majority in Breckinridge county was shown by an incident which occurred there last week. After the speaking of a number of Republicans got together and started out in search of a Democrat who would make a wager on the result. They accidentally met Mr. W. H. Hoek, who is one of the wealthiest and most influential Democrats in Breckinridge county.

RESOLUTIONS

Of the Mt. Sterling Bar Upon the Death of Col. Turner.

Worthy Praise of An Honest Man, Able Lawyer, Great Statesman.

At a meeting of the members of the Mt. Sterling Bar held at the Court House in Mt. Sterling, Kentucky, on Wednesday, September 12th, 1900, to take suitable action on the death of the Hon. Thomas Turner.

On motion of A. B. White, Col. A. T. Wood was made Chairman and on motion of R. H. Winn, R. G. Koss was made Secretary of said meeting. The chairman after stating the object of the said meeting, and upon motion appointed the following named persons as a committee on resolutions: John E. Cooper, A. B. White and J. G. Winn. And on motion appointed W. A. Davidson a Committee to purchase a suitable flag offering on motion the meeting was adjourned to meet at the Court House on Thursday morning, September 13th, 1900, at nine o'clock to receive and take action on the report of the Committee on resolutions.

Thursday morning, September 13th, 1900, the members of the Mt. Sterling Bar met in pursuance to adjournment when the Committee on resolutions presented its report.

Eulogistic and touching remarks were made on the motion to adopt said resolution, and also on the life, character and public services of the distinguished dead, by C. J. S. Har, Judge H. C. McKee, Judge J. H. Hargraves, M. S. Tyler, A. B. White and Col. A. T. Wood.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted and are as follows:

Whereas, the Almighty has called hence the soul of our Brother, Col. Thos. Turner, who died at his home in this city on September 11th, 1900, therefore, be it resolved by the members of the Mt. Sterling Bar, in meeting assembled:

That in Col. Turner's death we have lost a true and esteemed friend, a man of ability and integrity, and that we deeply feel the loss thus visited upon the community and the bar.

That we adopt as part of these resolutions the subjoined sketch of his life and character; and that we request that it and these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Montgomery Circuit Court, and be published in the papers of this City.

That we extend to the members of his family our deepest sympathy in their bereavement; that we and the officers of the Court attend his funeral in a body, and that the members of the bar wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

The Grim Reaper claims all seasons for his own; the waxing and increasing life, the life in fullest fruition, and the life which wears the serene and yellow leaf alike await the fateful hour, the hour whose approach is most of all things certain, and yet of all things most uncertain as to the time of its coming.

Twice with a single twelve-month the Mt. Sterling bar is called to mourn the loss of its oldest member, such a lawyer of unusual ability and distinction, such a man of pronounced individuality, such a leader, such a man of unquestioning conviction in all his beliefs, and of energetic devotion to their advocacy.

The death of the lamented Judge Peters left Col. Turner the oldest member of this Bar; his successor will in the appointed turn give place to another, whose vacant place yet another will in time be called to fill, and so on, until many of its whose feet are now pressing life's way on the journey toward its summit, will occupy the venerable and honorable place so lately filled by our departed friend. He who now surveys the way before him most carefully and chooses the best of life's devious paths will contemplate in most restful retrospect the journey he is about to end.

Col. Thos. Turner was born in Madison County, Ky., on Sept. 10th, 1821, the son of Squire and Elizabeth Stone Turner; his father was one of the most eminent lawyers of this State, so that Col. Turner had not only the influence of natural temperament but of paternal example as well to lead him to the vocation he chose.

After preparation for College in his home schools, he completed his literary education at Centre College, Danville, Kentucky, after which he took the law course in Transylvania University at Lexington, then the greatest institution of learning west of the Alleghenies, under the tutelage and direction of the distinguished George R. Horton; graduating in due course from the law school he was admitted to the practice in his native county, and was Commonwealth's Attorney of his District from 1846 to 1849.

In 1854 Col. Turner married M. Mary Everett, daughter of Samuel Everett of this county, and seeing here opportunities for advancement in his profession and for material success as well, he soon came to this place to live, which has ever since been his home.

His first wife died in less than two years, leaving him a little daughter, Miss Mary, whose life has been one of the fullest devotion to her father, only during the strenuous exertions of his political and business career but also while he trud the downward side of life's hill.

In 1856 he married Miss Henrietta Robertson, also a Montgomery County girl, whose life shed cheer and sweetness over husband, children and friends until her long illness terminated in her death some ten years ago. Of her seven sons and one daughter all survive, his father except John, who died some six months since.

Col. Turner had the great happiness, the unusual happiness of seeing all his sons comfortably established in business and discharging the obligations of manhood toward themselves and their fellow-men.

His ancestors were of fighting stock, his father having served in the war of 1812 and his grandfather in the revolution, and he himself was a soldier in the war with Mexico, during which he became a Major in the U. S. Army.

In 1861 he represented this District in the Legislature and then devoted himself to the practice of his profession until 1876 when he was elected to Congress. He was also elected for a second term in 1878.

In Congress he was an industrious worker in the interest of his constituents and of the country at large, devoting special efforts to securing appropriations for the improvement of the rivers of our State, in which he was very successful.

In politics he was forceful and aggressive in advocating his principles; he was outspoken always and any man could find out by the asking what were Col. Turner's views on any subject. He earnestly espoused the cause of Democracy always, and in 1896 when so many Democrats deserted from a man of the principles laid down in the Chicago platform he accepted them all, and was an enthusiastic supporter of William Jennings Bryan and the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1 up to the last moment he was able to discuss such matters.

One of the most marked characteristics of Col. Turner was his freedom from old-foginess in any form. He subscribed with all his heart the belief that progress is the indispensable law of life and was in sympathy with every advancing step in every line of human endeavor and investigation. In religious matters he was firmly convinced that it had not yet been given to the human mind to grasp all that we may lawfully know of the Infinite, and that each step forward was but an entering wedge which opened the way a little further. He had rejected materiality and read widely on these lines, and his religion abounded in faith and progression. He had little patience with dogmatic creed that would fix itself unalterably for all time upon tenets which were but the views of men mortal like ourselves.

He was the last of our bar whose career began under the Common Law pleading and practice, and he was always ready to enlarge upon the beauty and philosophy of that system. It was a tender remark of his that no man could truly appreciate or understand the Code unless he had grounded himself in the Common Law procedure, its history and its rationale. He took evident delight in tracing various provisions of the Code to their origin in the Common Law practice, and believed in this argument of legal quibbles was paid more attention to principle than to precedent; in fact he had scant patience with what he called "case lawyers," who could give no greater reason for their contention than that they had found in some book a case like their's which some Judge had decided their way.

Of the truthfulness and honesty of his nature, both as a man and as a practicing lawyer, it certainly is not necessary for us to speak. His life has been an open book which all men could read. To a man who does not possess these foundation stones of character, the position and opportunity of a lawyer are but an additional reproach; Col. Turner fought fairly and in the open, and never descended to those tricks of sharp practice or intrigue which are sometimes made to masquerade in the guise of shrewdness.

He saw with tranquility the approaching end of his life, and said that he expected to die on his birthday, which in fact he survived but a few hours.

Almost four score years were allotted to him; ripe in years and in honors he has been gathered to the garner. May his dust await in peace the Archangel's summons.

JOHN G. WYNN, A. B. WHITE, J. E. COOPER, Committee.

Upon motion the meeting then adjourned to attend the funeral in a body.

R. G. KERN, A. T. Wood, Secretary, Chairman.

Benefit For the Galveston Flood Sufferers.

The manager of the Grand Opera House of this city and the manager of the Herald Square Opera Co. which appears in this city on next Wednesday and Thursday evenings will donate to the Galveston Flood sufferers a percentage of the receipts of both performances.

This generous offer on the part of the company and manager of the Opera House, should crowd the theatre to the doors at both performances. This company is guaranteed to be the best Opera Company that has as yet appeared in this city. It numbers in its cast some of the brightest lights of the operatic stage, and the performances given are artistic in its finish and production.

A good many consumptives would be cured and the worst cases comforted and relieved by using Foley's Kidney and Bladder Pills.

You should do this as a friend. Sold by F. C. DUBOIS, druggist.

NO MORE OF MCKINLEY

Workmen in a Louisville Factory Felt an

Officials Boss With Republican Buttons.

The change of sentiment from McKinley to Bryan is shown by a little incident that happened in one of Louisville's big manufactories recently. In 1896, not more than three of the employees were for Mr. Bryan, and they were afraid to declare themselves.

One Saturday night during the past few weeks one of the bosses, believing the men but this year as they did four years ago, got a box of McKinley buttons to distribute among the men as they passed out after the draw their weekly wages. What was his surprise, after the buttons had been distributed, to find himself deluged with buttons. The men threw them at him, pelting him in the face and about the head with them. About seventy-five men were in the crowd, and all declared that they wanted no more of McKinley.

Returned to Virginia.

A number of years ago, shortly after the extension of the C & O. through this city to Huntington, W. Va., W. L. Morris with his family and mother-in-law, Mrs. Harriet Riggs, moved to this city. After a few years here Mr. Morris died, soon followed to the grave by his beloved wife. This left the mother-in-law with a large and helpless family to support—a brave and determined soul she went about doing her work helped by her son-in-law and much by her son-in-law John E. Harrington, of Lexington. There was promise of help from Lambert, the oldest of the children, but that boy, bright and capable, went from bad to worse, beginning with race horses, until it is said he is nothing but a moral and physical wreck. Some time ago the grandmother leaving this boy at home took the rest of the family of children to Virginia with her. Her stay was pleasant and while there she determined to return to her kinspeople where she might be the better aided in the support of her charge, and returning to gather up her effects found the grandson gone, the house stripped of almost everything valuable.

The good people learning what had occurred, subscribed a fund which was placed in the hands of W. R. Nunneley, who with others, provided the necessities of life, supported the family while here, packed the remnant of household effects, paid the freight and gave the faithful grandmother a small sum with which to defray incidental expenses and now this noble, appreciative woman sends back this card: "I am so thankful for every kindness shown me and my grandchildren by the good people of Mt. Sterling." To see the once happy family now broken returning to their former home almost destitute was surely a pathetic scene. The Lord cares for his poor.

Blood Troubles:

Cancer, Scrofula, Old Sores, Rheumatism, Contagious Blood Poison, Chronic Ulcers.

As the blood contains all the elements necessary to sustain life, it is important that it be kept free of all impurities, or it becomes a source of disease, poisoning instead of nourishing the body, and loss of health is sure to follow. Some poisons enter the blood from without, through the skin by absorption, or inoculation; others from within, as when waste products accumulate in the system and ferment, allowing disease germs to develop and be taken into the circulation. While all blood troubles have one common origin, each has some peculiarity to distinguish it from the other. Contagious Blood Poison, Scrofula, Cancer, Rheumatism, Eczema and other blood diseases can be distinguished by certain signs, showing the location of the impurities in the blood. Contagious blood disease shows sooner or later on the outside and on the weakest part of the body, or where it finds the least resistance. Many mistake the sore or outward sign for the real disease, and attempt a cure by the use of salves, liniments and other external applications. Valuable time is lost and no permanent benefit derived from such treatment.

BLOOD TROUBLES REQUIRE BLOOD REMEDIES: the poison must be completely and permanently eradicated—the blood reinforced, purified and cleansed, or the disease goes deeper and saps the very life. Mercury, violent poisons, even when taken in small doses—never cure, but do much harm by adding another poison to the already overburdened, diseased blood.

Free Medical Treatment.—Our Medical Department is in charge of skilled physicians, who have made blood diseases a life study, and if you have any of the above named diseases, at the same time builds up the general health. S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the only one that can reach deep-seated blood troubles. A record of 50 years of successful cases proves it to be a reliable, unfailing specific for all blood and skin troubles.

Federal Control. Mr. Yerkes is reported as saying that the Republican party is the only political party that stands for fairness in elections. In this connection he approved the action of Judge Evans, of the Federal Court, in punishing men for misconduct at State elections.

Whether Judge Evans' construction of the law is correct or not is a question not suitable for argument here. It has gone to an Appellate Court for review, and the question will doubtless be decided in due time. But it appears singular that his action should be cited as evidence that the Republican party stands for fairness in elections. The grand juries in the Federal Court, some of them composed, as was reported, entirely of Republicans, or nearly so, have indicted only Democrats. Can we infer from this that Republicans have been guilty of no offenses against the election laws? It is known that the Republicans last year employed an enormous fund to corrupt voters. Some of this money has been used to induce negroes to vote the Republican ticket, for it is known that it is sometimes necessary to pay these voters to vote their sentiments, while others are inclined to vote the Democratic ticket unless deterred therefrom by solid arguments that come within their comprehension. None of these, however, was discovered by the Federal grand jury.

Nothing is to be said, of course, in behalf of men engaged in corrupting the ballot. It is a great and growing evil, but precautions are comparatively rare, probably because men cognizant of the facts often have reasons of their own for not taking the matter into the courts. It is a lamentable fact that both parties use a great deal of money in elections, not always legitimately, but the Republicans employ a great deal more than the Democrats because they are able to get more from trusts and others whom they have agreed to favor by legislation or in some other way. There is no question better settled than that the Republicans are and for years have been the chief offenders against the integrity of the ballot. Within the past few weeks they have been threatening favored interests in Philadelphia that Bryan will be elected unless they subscribe $800,000 to the Republican campaign fund. It would be an insult to the intelligence of the reader to argue that such a fund is intended entirely for legitimate purposes. It is a corruption fund that is wanted, and everybody knows it.

The question of law involved in the prosecution in the Federal Courts is one of great interest because it involves the right of States to conduct their own elections free from Federal interference. That question was supposed to be settled years ago, but it had been revived. But as a political question it is absurd to refer to transactions in a Federal Court, directed solely against one party, as a proof that the other party stands for fair elections. Mr. Yerkes does not say that this court is a Republican court. Though the Judge happens to be a Republican, his court is for the benefit of all the people without respect to party.

How it has happened that only Democrats have been punished for election offenses is for Mr. Yerkes to explain, since he has seen fit to take the court into politics. Its action is certainly no proof that the Republican party stands for fair elections.—Courier Journal.

How Bright's Disease Starts.

Indigestion, biliousness, blood poisoned with urea and uric acid (which should have been excreted by the kidneys), rheumatic pains in nerves and joints, causing irritation of the kidneys, then pains over the small of the back, mark early approach of Bright's disease. Do not delay taking Foley's Kidney Cure, for it makes the kidneys right.

ATLANTA DAILY CONSTITUTION

Now Running a Special Campaign Offer, Only $1.00.

The Constitution, of Atlanta, Ga., is now offering its Daily and Sunday editions complete to new subscribers from the date the order reaches that office until November 10th for only $1.00. This last special offer will take the subscribers beyond and give him the full news of the presidential election. The period thus covered will be of unusual interest, not only because of the election and the questions pending thereon, but it will be full of events, and guesses at the truth of reported events in China. The struggle is on between the "yellow terrors" and the "American devil," and it will command the world's attention for many months to come. It is probable that South Africa will become peaceful on a basis that will allow the spunky Boers to lay down their arms with honor. Cuba and the Philippines are with us until their status is determined their question will continue to be of interest. The Constitution always covers all the news completely, and this exceptional offer will doubtless test the paper full capacity in supplying the paper to thousands of thirty subscribers. The sooner you send for it the longer you will get it for your dollar.

Freely Respond.

The response of the whole country to Galveston's cry for help has been prompt and generous. Scarcely a city is without its relief fund. Commercial bodies have acted promptly. Food and clothing, surgeons and nurses have been hurried southward with all speed. The nation is giving freely of its abundance, and great as is the disaster, the sympathy and liberality of the people are greater.

"I had a running sore on my leg for several years," writes Mr. J. A. Forest of Chipewah Falls, Wis., "and spent hundreds of dollars in trying to get it healed. Two boxes of Bannan Salve entirely cured it."

BOURBON COUNTY ITEMS.

Squire R. F. Morris, a highly respected citizen of Paris, is 91 yrs. old.

Wm. King, ex-Bourbon, died at Denver, Colo., he is survived by his wife, nee Sallie, of Mason county.

The Dr. Collins farm near Jacksonville, containing 291 acres, was purchased by Hon. W. H. McMillan, of Paris, for $68 per acre.

Mrs. J. S. Sawyer has purchased of B. F. Remington the residence adjoining the latter's home on Higgins avenue. Price, $2,000.

At Little Rock, Fielding Stone and Roy Gillespie, both died Friday, the 7th. The former is the grandfather of the latter, Mr. Stone dying of pneumonia and the latter of kidney trouble.

LEAD MINES TO BE WORKED.—In an interview with Mr. Rimmette he said work would be resumed on the lead veins in East Paris on Saturday, 15th, as parties interested would arrive by that time to push the work.

Two Mormon elders recently applied to Judge H. C. Smith for permission to preach at the Court-house, but the judge firmly refused their request. The elders then resumed their house to house canvass to introduce their infamous and vicious doctrine in the homes of Bourbon.

There is a new disease affecting the cattle at Millersburg and its diagnosis and prognosis are uncertain. The eye, one or both, becomes inflamed and watery and is often destroyed. Several head of stock have lost both eyes, absolutely. It is either infectious or contagious. There have been isolated cases discovered but in each herd where several head are diseased.

Louis Pfleizer, of Chicago, the Western agent of Schwartzchild, Seiberger & Co., bought of C. Alexander, Sr., 525 head of extra fine export cattle at the highest price paid any one this year. The cattle will be delivered in November and will be shipped from New York, Nov. 24th, in two fast freight vessels, as the cattle are especially for the Christmas market in London. This fine herd was bought and cared for personally by C. Alexander, Jr., who has received many compliments for his judgment in handling and producing such a superior and select lot of big cattle. Mr. Pfleizer also purchased of Thos. Henry Clay, of this county, 327 head of excellent export cattle.

There are some women who seem to be personally youthful. The grown daughters are companions as well as children, and the color in the mother's cheeks, the brightness in her eyes, the roundness of her form, all speak of abounding health. What is her secret? She is at the middle age of life when so many women are worn, wasted and faded, and yet time has only ripened her charms. The secret of this marvellous health and beauty may be told in the brief phrase, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The general health of woman is so intimately related to the local health of the delicate womanly organs, that where these are diseased, the whole body must suffer. "Favorite Prescription" cures the debilitating drains, heals ulcerations and inflammation, cures female weakness and imparts to the delicate female organs natural vigor and vitality. Women who have lost their health, and their beauty have been made "robust and rosy cheeked" by the use of this marvelous medicine.

INTERESTING BIBLES.

Cromwell's Pocket Edition for Soldiers—Jefferson's Study Book Tests.

The most interesting collection of Bibles in the world is in the British and Foreign Bible society, in Queen Victoria street, London, although there are more ancient and valuable specimens in the British museum. The best collection in the United States is in the Lenox library, New York. The Bible society in New York has a large variety of Bibles in all languages, which I understand are ultimately to be added to the Lenox collection. The finest private collection in the country belongs to Mr. S. Brainerd Pratt, of Boston.

There is a good collection of Bibles in the National museum at Washington, and among others one of Cromwell's pocket Bibles, which he gave to every soldier in his army, with instructions to carry it in a pocket made especially for that purpose in the waistcoat over the heart. It is not a complete Bible, but contains extracts from the Scriptures which are especially applicable to war and to a soldier's life.

Thomas Jefferson's Bible, which is in the museum, is a scrapbook of texts from the evangelists cut out of an ordinary printed Bible and pasted in a book according to their historical sequence. On the margin are a number of annotations in Jefferson's handwriting. Two maps—of Palestine and the other of the ancient world—are pasted in the front. The section of the Roman law under the authority of which Christ was crucified, is quoted, also in his handwriting. It was Jefferson's purpose to have this arrangement of the Bible published for common use, after cutting out all contradictory and ambiguous passages.

In a letter to John Adams, dated October 18, 1815, he says that he has cut up for his own use "verse by verse, out of the printed Book, all of the matter which is evidently 'Christ's,' and describes it as 'the most sublime and benevolent code of morals which has ever been offered to man.'"—W. E. Curtis, in Chicago Record.

HIGH PRICED FISH.

Recently imported by a New Yorker from Japan.

Mr. Otto Eggeling, of Harlem, has just imported from Japan 30 Japanese goldfish, or fantails, said to be the most expensive pet fish in the world. Mr. Eggeling says that the beautiful species he has just received cannot be duplicated in this country, and he regards himself as the only proud possessor in the United States of this luxury. The fish cost from $25 to $30 apiece.

These Japanese fish are of the color of the rainbow; some are spotted with bright gold and silver tints; others in blue and yellow spots, and others again in greenish and dark brown hues. They have big heads and large, bulging eyes, which Mr. Eggeling says are not natural, but have been made to grow so by some artificial means used by the Japanese to make the fish look odd. But the most striking feature of the Japanese goldfish is the tail. It is long and graceful, branching off in different directions, and, when the sun's rays strike it, beautiful colors seem to emanate from its surface. These fishes seem to be aware of their beauty, for they flit about with that pride and calm assurance which the peacock possesses.

While there is a great risk in importing these fish from far-off Japan, not one died on the long journey, and Mr. Eggeling says they are long-lived and healthy, and do not require any extra care to keep them well and happy.—N. Y. Herald.

Very Costly Wine.

The most expensive wine manufactured is not champagne, as most people imagine. It is Rhine wine from the private vineyard of Prince Metternich, and sells for about 30 shillings a quart. The vineyard is on the side of a hill overlooking the Rhine, which is not accessible except to human feet. As a result all the work has to be done by hand. The grapes have to be carried down the hill on the shoulders of men, and in a like manner fertilizers have to be transported up the acidity. The sun shines on the vineyard only at certain hours of the day, and in this way the grape receives a flavor that distinguishes the wine from that of any other Rhine brand.

One Minute Cough Cure is the only harmless that produces immediate results. Try it. For sale by F. C. Duerksen, Druggist.

Any Style in the Category of Fashions

For Fall and Winter Wear in either Suits or Overcoats

For MEN and BOYS, claiming the honor of being the leaders in this section for the newest merchandise. We have strained every point this season to uphold our assertions, and are now ready to give you the best quality at the lowest prices in our life. Come here! Look here! Polite salesmen will show you through our store.

Cut No. 1

Shows the Raglan Overcoat made of rough and smooth faced melton and vicunas; comes a little below the knees, sleeve and shoulder all in one, vertical pockets in the side made so as to allow the wearer to reach his trouser pockets without unbuttoning his overcoat. Cut loose and roomy. The Raglan must above all other coats be made properly. Ours come from the best tailor shop in the world.

Cut No. 2

Shows our 3 button Double-Breasted Sack. We have them in all kinds of cloth. Its made to hang straight in front; cut with broad sloping shoulders and military close-fitting back. There is no outside breast pocket and the length is a trifle shorter than last season. Our Double-breasted Sack is so constructed as to prevent bagging when left open. Don't buy a suit until you have seen our styles.

This season's styles differ considerable from last. There are many changes, as these cuts will show. Here are the fashions, for we photographed them from life and reduced them to cuts.

It is our custom every season to offer something new and startling at less than the manufacturers cost. This time we have succeeded in closing out 200 All-wool Tricot Cassimere Suits, worth $8.50 any person's money, that we will offer

Long as They Last For $5.00!

Cut in Single and Double Breasted Sacks, in two colors, light and dark grey, made in the latest fashions and tailored in the best possible manner; good for business or dress wear. We urge you to take a look at these Suits, as they are the greatest bargains ever offerød, and it's an unwritten law with us to give your money back if you want it.

Cut No. 3

Shows quite the swellest thing for young men. Our 3-button Broad Shouldered Cutaway Sack has an outside breast pocket, cut military in the back; trousers are roomy in the hips and legs, and are cut straight. The art of the finest tailor is here. The minute you want it at half the tailors, price

Cut No. 4

Shows our Slim Raglan Overcoat cut same as Raglan, only without the Raglan sleeve; made in the newest novelties of greys with green over plaids and many novel colorings. Don't fail to see the fashions here.

Cut No. 5

Shows the Knox Hat as its worn not only in this country, but abroad. We have a beautiful line of Knox, Stetson and Hawes Hats. The shapes this season in stiff hats is a trifle smaller than last. Our own style, the Walsh Special, in natural black and belly —, has its own followers; more sold than any other one style hat. Come to us for correct hats.

J. C. Graves, Agent. Samples at Punch & Gatewood's.

Nothing but the best of order on the Odd Fellows' Excursion. There may be some "doubting Thomases" but the Odd Fellows always have perfect order.

Mt. Sterling Military and Collegiate School.

In an address delivered last week before the University of Chicago our own brave Gen. Wheeler declared that the destiny of the human race was to be guided in the future largely by the government of the United States, and that his observations among the peoples of the Pacific islands and those of China forcibly impressed upon him the importance of all institutions of learning devoting a full measure of effort to instilling a spirit of chivalry and patriotic devotion.

A military school awakens and kindles this spirit of chivalry and patriotic devotion among the boys and girls, and to keep it fresh and strong, our national flag shall float day by day during the session over the Mt. Sterling Military and Collegiate School.

That boys may command they must learn to obey. Obedience to those in authority is a lesson that can not be learned too early in life. All cadets in this institution will be in full uniform and under military training and discipline.

Session opens September 3, 1900.

ABNER ROGERS, Superintendent.

THE SICK.

Mrs. D. M. Chenault, of Richmond, continues quite sick.

A Change In Temperature.

During August and September the weather was unusually hot. A change came on Sunday night, and on yesterday morning the thermometer ranged from 47 to 50 degrees and fire was acceptable. Prepare your stoves, grates and fires for winter service. Many houses are burned on account of defective flues.

For burns, injuries, piles and diseases use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is the original. Counterfeits may be offered. Use only DeWitt's. For sale by F. C. Duerison, Drug list.

Hazel Green Academy.

The enrollment of the first day was 90, an increase of 21 over any previous year's first day.

PASSING YEARS

Look in your mirror today. Take a last look at your gray hair. It may be the last if you want it so; you needn't keep your gray longer than you wish. There's no guesswork about this; it's sure every time.

To restore color to gray hair—use—

Ayer's Hair Vigor

After using it for two or three weeks notice how much younger you appear, ten years younger at least.

Ayer's Hair Vigor also cures dandruff, prevents falling of the hair, makes hair grow, and is a splendid hair dressing.

It cannot help but do these things, for it's a hair-food. When the hair is well fed, it cannot help but grow.

It makes the scalp healthy and this cures the disease that causes dandruff.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

"My hair was coming out badly, but Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling and has made my hair very thick and much darker than before. It really is nothing like it for the hair."—Cora M. Yarrow, I. T., April 18, 1890.

Write the Doctor.

If you do not object to the use of the Vigor, send the Doctor your name and address, with the name of the druggist who sold you the bottle.

Dr. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

Loss of Life And Damage To Small Texas Towns.

Hitchcock.—Sixteen lives were lost. Two Italian families of thirteen people lost twelve of their number by drowning.

Virginia Point.—Many mutilated bodies found. No estimate of the dead can be made.

Algoa.—Town badly damaged and inhabitants need assistance.

Arcadia.—Twenty-year-old boy killed and town damaged severely. Fifty families are destitute.

Alto Loma.—Many buildings wrecked and two children killed.
